Meet the RMHS Class of 2022 Graduates

This year's graduating class of Round Mountain High School is a mix of young men and women who are ready to end one chapter of their lives and begin another. Meet the graduates of the Class of 2022.

Blaze Burgess is a funny, caring, and energetic young man. His hobbies include weightlifting, skateboarding, gaming, basketball and hanging with his girlfriend. He plans on working for UPS while attending South Mountain Community College in Arizona and working on his bachelor's degree in Information Technology. Blaze would like to thank his wonderful grandparents and his beautiful sister, his amazing girlfriend Gia, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Mac, and his Aunt Ari for their support. Jordyn Foutt is this year's Salutatorian. Jordyn describes herself as an introvert who enjoys being alone, yet she advocates for things she believes in. She likes to crochet and play video games during her free time. Jordyn plans on moving to Reno and attending the University of Nevada, Reno to study social work and journalism in her hopes to be a first-generation college student. She would like to thank Janira, Koleby, Kellee, Jaylenne, Mr. Wind, Mr. Caramella, Mr. Roberts, Mr. Mac, and Mrs. Larsen. Brooklyn Hanks is this year's Valedictorian. Brooklyn is hard-working, silly, and optimistic. Her hobbies include volleyball, basketball, traveling to Las Vegas and hanging out with her dog. Brooklyn has a close family who is spread out among Round Mountain, Las Vegas and Canada. Her most memorable moment of the year was making State in basketball. Brooklyn would like to thank her mom for being her best friend and believing in her when she didn't believe in herself. She'd also like to thank her family for being supportive and her teachers for being sweet and for not kicking her out of their classes when she was annoying. Koleby Harmon describes himself as athletic and goofy. He enjoys playing games and baseball. His plans for after graduation include working for a little bit, then attending college. His favorite school memory is going to Laughlin for baseball. Koleby would like to thank his family and his friends for everything. McKenna Lee Harwood is athletic, kind, realistic and sometimes funny. She played volleyball, basketball and softball all four years in high school. After graduation, McKenna plans on attending the College of Southern Idaho to pursue a degree in welding. Her favorite high school memory is going to State for basketball. McKenna says, "I'd like to thank my mommy and dad for being so supportive and pushing me to be my best self. I also want to thank my whole extended family for being my biggest fans and being so excited for my future." Pritney Keju is confident, beautiful, and a stand-out. She likes singing, volleyball, softball, and crocheting. After graduation, she plans to go to college and live in the city. Pritney says her family is the reason she is the person she is today. She would like to thank her friends, family, teachers and staff. Emma Millard is kind, caring, adventurous, and fun. Her hobbies include swim team, walks with her dog, and basketball. Emma's post-graduation plans include working at the mine for a year while taking online college classes, then moving to Idaho for nursing school. Her favorite high school memory is going to State for basketball, painting the rock, and senior ditch day. Emma would like to thank her mom, dad, siblings, nieces, nephews, Cheyenne, and her classmates. Hunter Mishler describes himself as mostly humble and respectful to all people. His hobbies include cars, airsoft, music and gaming. Hunter's plans after graduation include working, saving money and doing online college. His family has helped him get through the roughest times of his life during high school. Hunter would like to thank the teachers who cared about his education and helped him with things that were important to him. Giavanna Nelson is kind and loving old soul who goes with the flow. She loves her family along with working out, playing volleyball, and hanging out with Blaze. Her plans after graduation include getting a summer job, then attend the Aveda Institute in Phoenix, Arizona. Her favorite high school memory is homecoming and powder puff along with senior sunrise this year. She writes, "I would like to thank my mom and dad, of course my little brother Blake, and my teachers and friends." Dustyne Anya Olsen is a kind-hearted, selfless, dedicated young woman who wears her heart on her sleeve. She enjoys track, hiking, camping, baking, welding and bowling. After high school Dustyne plans on pursuing her track and field dreams at College of Southern Nevada in Las Vegas. Later she wants to go into welding. Her favorite senior memory is becoming closer to her two best friends Moe and Pritney who will always have a special place in her heart. Dustyne would like to thank her parents for always being there for her and for pushing her towards her goals. She writes, "They have always been there for me and I don't know where I'd be without them. I love them more than I can describe." Cheyenne Paasche is kind, caring, loving and adventurous—all with an attitude. She likes playing softball and entering rodeos. Her post-high school plans include working for a year and then going to school. Her favorite high school memories are Senior Prom, painting the rock, senior sunrise, and senior ditch day. She would like to thank her family, friends, and teachers. Janira Roan describes herself as a giggly gal who is really nice. She likes to walk her dog, watch YouTube and hang out with her friends. Her future goals include working at the mine if possible. Her favorite high school memory is going to state for basketball with her favorite team. She would like to thank her friends, family, and classmates for the best memories. I appreciates and loves her family for everything they helped her with. Janira says she'd be so lost without them. Moe-Moesha Tanimoto is outgoing, energetic, positive, and always has a smile on her face. Her hobbies include performing arts, basketball, boating, tubing, white water rafting, karaoke, and wakeboarding. Moe plans to attend college in Reno and start a career in public affairs. Her favorite high school memory is a Friendsgiving dinner she had with a few people she calls her people. Moe would like to thank her (continue on page 5)

Around the Community

Community Champions

Erin Berg, Jenna Diller, and Chase Diller (pictured left to right) are the driving force behind the success of our RM Youth Athletics. All three have gone above and beyond for our youth! Every day they draw from their own knowledge, skills and life experiences to make our youth better. They improve the quality of life for everyone in Round Mountain by promoting health and wellbeing through sports. They are motivating and empowering not only our youth to get involved but also all our amazing volunteer coaches who find the time in their busy schedules to consistently show up for our kids. Thank you, RM Youth Athletics!

TRM Arbor Day Celebration and Color Run

Round Mountain Recreation Department would like to say thank you to everyone that helped make our Arbor Day event such a success! A special thank you to The Round Mountain Volunteer Fire Department, Nye County Sheriff's office and Sergeant Kiburis, RMHS track team, our local 4-H group, all volunteers and vendors! Thank you for helping make this day possible!

Clara Fischer Awarded for Her Honesty

Several months ago a hundred dollar bill was found in The General Store parking lot by Clara Fischer, a homeschooled 8th grader. Without hesitation, Clara turned this into the store office, where they put it in the safe. The money was never claimed. The General Store feels this is an exemplary act of honesty at the highest level. The store was pleased to award Clara a gift certificate of $50 and the original $100 bill she found. Great job, Clara!
