BACK-TO-SCHOOL BRIGADE® WITH KINROSS AT CREECH AIR FORCE BASE

Kinross is proud to have partnered with Operation Homefront's Back-to-School Brigade® recently at Creech Air Force Base. Traveling to Indian Springs, our volunteers participated in handing out backpacks filled with school supplies to military families. The Back-to-School Brigade® is an annual nationwide campaign by Operation Homefront that collects and distributes school supplies to eligible dependents of service members. Through this assistance program, military children receive free back-to-school supplies, including backpacks, to help them start the new school year on the right foot.

SMOKY VALLEY LIBRARY

Smoky Valley Library will be resuming programs on August 14th! STEM for all ages, Storytime on Friday's, AR testing, Pre-School and our holiday parties. We have been very busy getting prepared for the upcoming year.

Along with our programs, we would like to remind the public of services we offer. The library is still your "go to" for any faxes, photo prints, notary's, banner prints, and community information!

We strive to provide services that the public needs. Need help with a resume? We have you covered! Need to make flyers? We can help! Need to let the kids loose and play? Bring them down, we love kids!

Round Mountain Public Library is open Monday - Friday from 8:00am - 6:00pm
Manhattan Library is open Mondays and Fridays from 1:00pm-4:00pm
STEM is Wednesdays from 4:00-4:45
Storytime is Fridays from 10:00-11:00
These programs resume August 14th!

KINROSS BACK TO SCHOOL BRIGADE

Pictured to the right are participants stopping by to pick up back-to-school supplies provided by Operation Homefront and volunteers from Kinross Round Mountain. Kinross is proud to partner with such organizations to bring supplies to those in need. In a continued effort for community outreach, Creech Airforce Base welcomed volunteers Rachel Ray, Bianca Roan, and Lauren Shyluk. Together Kinross was able to hand out around 150 backpacks with supplies to military families.

Kinross distributing fresh produce to the town of Duckwater. Kinross is making monthly trips to Duckwater to provide the community with produce to the elders and youth.

DUCKWATER PRODUCE DISTRIBUTION

DUCKWATER CLEAN-UP DAY

Kinross traveled to Duckwater recently to assist in a clean-up day before their 45th Annual Duckwater Festival/Pow-Wow. Each year Kinross volunteers in Duckwater to help prepare the town for an influx of visitors during the event.

This year Kinross sent their summer student temp's and a few employees from the tech services.

"MR. T" THE NEWEST MEMBER OF THE LIBRARY

The staff at the library is happy to welcome our newest member! Meet "Mr. T". He is a 10 year old red-eared slider turtle. He is half aquatic and half not. He is a very sweet turtle and loves interacting with kids. He loves fruits and veggies, if he doesn't like it, he will let us know!

Thanks to Oryn Brown and family we are excited to have Mr. T as our new addition! If you come to the library don't forget to stop by and say hello to Mr. T.

JOEL KASTEN

Joel Thomas Kasten, 80, of Round Mountain Nevada passed away peacefully at home in Elko with family June 28th. Joel proceeded in death by his mother Jeanette Weegar (2014) wife Georgia Kasten (2013), stepfather Keith Weegar (2013), brother Michael Weegar (2013), brother Richard Kasten (2004) and father Alvin Kasten (1992). He is survived by his daughter Katie Moss, grandsons Tyler and Parker Moss, sisters Barbra Hansen and Bonnie Banks, and brothers Larry Kasten and Patrick Weegar. A celebration of life will be held in his honor. Please join us in celebrating Joel at the Simpson Center in Round Mountain Saturday, July 20th at 11:00 AM.

Joel was born and raised in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Joel joined the Navy (USS Prairie Destroyer Tender) until 1968. In 1969 he moved to Leadville, Colorado and worked underground at the Climax Mine where he met his wife Georgia and had a daughter Katie. Joel and Georgia moved to Round Mountain in 1986 where Joel finished his mining career and retired in 2012. Georgia passed in 2013. Joel stayed in the Smokey Valley while his daughter Katie and her husband Dan visited often with Joel's grandsons Tyler and Parker. Joel was blessed to have family and friends visit him often at his property that he called his paradise. Joel took care of his land and his cats with great pride. He enjoyed spending his time at Shoshone Market where he would visit friends and play on his favorite penny machine to pass the time. It didn't matter what kind of a day Joel was having he always say "who has more fun than we do? And proceed to laugh and say, "nobody!" The past two years Katie and Dan were honored to have Joel spend his final chapters with them and taught them about the gift of truly giving.

“Who has more fun than we do?
Nobody!”

- Joel Kasten
