KNIGHTS MURAL AT THE ROUND MOUNTAIN HIGH SCHOOL

written and painted by Phil Nichols graduate from RMHS 2007

In all my travels I have learned many things about art. The phrase that stood out to me the most is, "No one knows anything about art." It is so true because creativity it's so open as well as opinion. I do feel there are basic rules and fundamentals but when followed, whatever you imagine you can create.

I attended school in Round Mountain from second grade through graduation. In fact, I got the idea for the Knight Mural 21 years ago on a sports trip. During the matches I tried to study the mural on that school's wall. However, I couldn't stop thinking about how our Knight would blow their idea away! I kept all those thoughts to myself and never told anyone. After graduating I attended college then onto a very successful welding career. During that career, I learned much needed skills and knowledge I still use today. Here we are now I work for myself and provide for my family all alone. I mentioned in passing to Kenndra I always wanted to paint the gym. Thanks to those simple things here we are! So many hours and hours of planning and preparation went into this project before paint goes on the wall.

This mural was entirely hand-painted and it took 11 days to complete. We kept a secret for a couple of months and that was tough. It was like Christmas morning waiting for the reveal. I had never done public speaking, especially not to the entire school. When they dropped the tarp I got the reward more than anyone! I got to witness all the kids from a tiny town light up with pride for their Knight. As of this date this is the biggest piece of art I have created. Moral of the story is no matter how big or small, no matter how you were inspired never miss an opportunity to share your idea. It will not always be easy, but you can achieve anything with enough, dedication, planning and courage!! To all the kids out there it doesn't matter where you come from or what car you drive. What matters is who you are as a human and your willingness to put in the work it takes. My promise to you is no idea is too big and no town is too small. You are the human that makes it all happen. Do your very best at everything you do, help out the kids that need it and be kind. If we all do these simple things we truly can change the world.

I want to give a special thank you to RMGC for making this possible

I loved seeing Philip come back to the school he graduated from and make a contribution. Sometimes it's easy to look around and think other communities have better facilities, more funds, more classes, etc. But Phil reminded all of the students that they didn't need to look elsewhere. He told the K-12 students that they have all the resources they need right here in Round Mountain Schools. I had Phil in class in middle school many years ago and I remember his goofy antics, his love of life, and his constant doodling on his assignments. Philip used his traits to build a successful business. I wish all students could see that their own unique gifts are more than enough to propel them into a career that is just right for them, just like Phil has done. That beautiful mural is a reminder to me of the mark each one of our students can make in this world.

Quote by Holly Merritt

"The first day of school to me is like a new book. Its mine, the teachers the staff and the student's chance to write a new story, create new memories and learn new stuff. By the looks, and the participation of the assembly we had on the first day of school, everyone is going to have a great story to tell this year"

Quote by Kindy Cheadle

35 Years of Dedication: Nancy Helming Retires

Nancy's dedication and versatility have been invaluable to our team at Round Mountain Gold Corp., as she has excelled in various roles throughout her career. Recently she has overseen projects as a Project Supervisor. We are grateful for Nancy's tireless commitment, expertise, and leadership. Her contributions will be deeply missed, but we wish her the best in this new chapter.

Congratulations, Nancy, on your retirement!

Happy Retirement

THANK YOU ROUND MOUNTAIN GOLD

Thank you Round Mountain Gold Corp. for your donation of an AED to the Mountain Valley Church. Previously, the church did not have this lifesaving device on-hand, now they are better equipped to handle cardiac emergencies.

GOODBYE, SUMMER!

The Town of Round Mountain helped our local kids kick off the school year with a town water fight on Friday August 9, 2024. Six hundred water balloons were thrown and memories were made.

ARENA AT THE HADLEY CORRALS

On Saturday, August 10, 2024, the town of Round Mountain and volunteers joined forces to finish the highly anticipated Hadley arena. This collaborative effort brings a safe and welcoming space for the community to ride, handle, and care for their animals. The arena will also serve as a hub for future 4-H events.

Thank you to all who helped make the Hadley arena a reality!

4-H COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT

Kudos to our local Smoky Valley 4-H members for their kindness and community spirit!

When they offered to help elderly community members with yard work, one resident gratefully accepted. The 4-H members enthusiastically tackled the task of moving a pile of wood into her backyard, making it easily accessible for her to use during the winter months.

Their positive attitudes and hard work made a significant difference in this individual's life, demonstrating the true spirit of volunteerism and compassion. We're proud of these young individuals for making a meaningful impact in their community!
