

Kinross Round Mountain: The Magic Behind the Harvest Festival Pumpkin Patch

The annual Harvest Festival is a cherished tradition, eagerly anticipated by all! One of its most beloved attractions is the picturesque pumpkin patch, where visitors can pick their perfect pumpkin. But have you ever wondered where these pumpkins come from?

A Heartfelt Thank You

Kinross Round Mountain generously donates the pumpkins each year, ensuring this enchanting tradition continues. Their kindness helps create unforgettable memories for festival-goers of all ages!

if you haven't yet, be sure next year to come experience the warmth and excitement of the Harvest Festival, and make the pumpkin patch a part of your annual tradition!

Round Mountain Public Library's Annual Harvest Festival 2024

The Round Mountain Public Library hosted its highly anticipated Annual Harvest Festival on Saturday, October 26, 2024. This beloved community event exceeded expectations, offering something for everyone.

Festival Highlights:

- Numerous vendors selling baked goods, fresh eggs, homemade products, and more
- Friends of the Smoky Valley Libraries baked goods, hot beverages, and flavored coffees
- Pumpkin patch for selecting the perfect pumpkin
- Cake walk featuring delicious cakes, brownies, and cookies
- Bounce house and outdoor games courtesy of the Town of Round Mountain
- "Creepy Cafe" for lunch

This year the library held several contests and raffles as well! Raffles included a Halloween quilt donated by Gwen Snow and the costume parade raffle. Contests were the Pumpkin Chuckin' and the highly anticipated photography contest. The event was a resounding success with over 50 photos entered in the photography contest.

Contest and Raffle Winners:

- Pumpkin Chuckin' Contest: Joseph Meighan (36 ft)
- Costume Parade Raffle: Blakelee Hanson, Maddox Kentopp, Bailey Dolan, and Lainey Damon
- Halloween Quilt Raffle: Aspen Fischer
- Photography Contest:
 - People's Choice: Michael Whitaker
 - 1st Place: Jared Pickens
 - 2nd Place: Lainey Damon

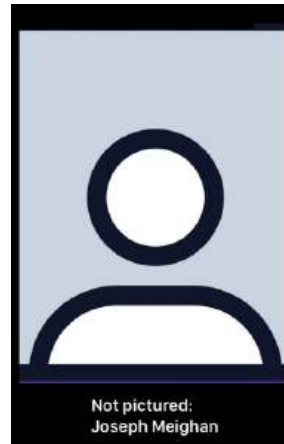

Everyone had an amazing time, and we're already looking forward to next year's festival!

The Smoky Valley Library District Staff and Library Board would like to thank you for supporting the libraries.

This years Harvest Festival was a very big success thanks to the support from all of you!

The library would like to thank all of the people who donated baked goods for the cake walk.

Big thank you to the Town of Round Mountain for setting up the bounce house and games.

Friends of the Library for running the coffee shop, donating to the trick or treat bags, and the cash prizes for our photo contest.

Thank you to Kinross Round Mountain for the donation of our pumpkins.

Big thank you to Shoshone Market for donating all the chocolate for our s'mores bar and for always supporting our reading programs.

And a very special thank you to the crafting ladies for donating the prizes for the costume parade and for supporting all the library programs.

Thank you to all the people who participated in the trunk or treat.

Senior Night for Round Mountain High school

We celebrated our high school seniors as they wrapped up their football and volleyball careers, a big applause for their hard work and dedication, crushing goals and bringing the game to the next level. We also want to recognize the parents who have supported them throughout this journey, your role as a key support system for these students has not gone unnoticed, wishing everyone the best of luck on their next chapters.
