

Pinktober: Kinross Round Mountain Supports Women's Health

Kinross Round Mountain celebrated Breast Cancer Awareness Month in style with their "Pinktober" initiative. Throughout October, employees showed their support by dressing up in pink, with HR hosting a friendly competition for the best attire. SOMETHING FOR YOU ADULT FICTION

Leigh Beth Stilton has never liked the holidays. After growing up in an unstable home, escaping an abusive marriage, and witnessing daily tragedies as an EMT, Leigh just can't bring herself to care about Christmas cheer. In fact, she's so convinced she's not worth loving that one winter's eve, she decides she can't go on—until she comes across a book called Bethel and starts to read.

Leigh is unfamiliar with the author, J.D. Harper, but his words speak directly to her. She's never felt so seen and understood, and this connection gives her the strength to carry on. She avidly reads every novel Harper has written, and when he comes to town for a book signing, she jumps at the opportunity to meet the writer who means so much to her.

In a twist of fate, Leigh runs into J.D. in a coffee shop, and the two immediately click. Before she knows it, she's swept up in a whirlwind of fancy dinners, exciting travel, and the attention of the man whose work has been so meaningful to her. But she's leery after a lifetime of pain and when she discovers that J.D. hasn't been completely honest, her hopes are dashed. Can they find their way back to each other and can Leigh learn to trust her heart?

SOMETHING FOR YOUR YOUNG READER JR. NONFICTION

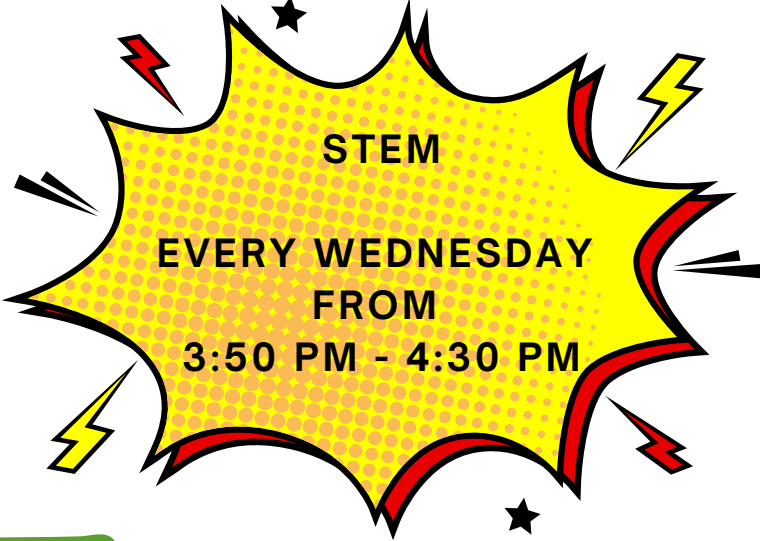

The true story of how one little puppy learned to breathe on her own -- as seen on The Dodo! When Sally was rescued, this tiny dachshund puppy couldn't eat or breathe without help. Sally had a feeding tube to give her food and medicine. And she had to stay inside a plastic bubble to get the extra oxygen she needed. But Sally was determined to breathe on her own. She practiced spending small amounts of time outside her bubble. Slowly but surely, Sally's lungs grew healthy and strong. With the love and support of those around her, Sally showed the world what it means to never give up! This story is perfect for middle-grade readers and comes with an eight-page full-color photo insert!

Community News

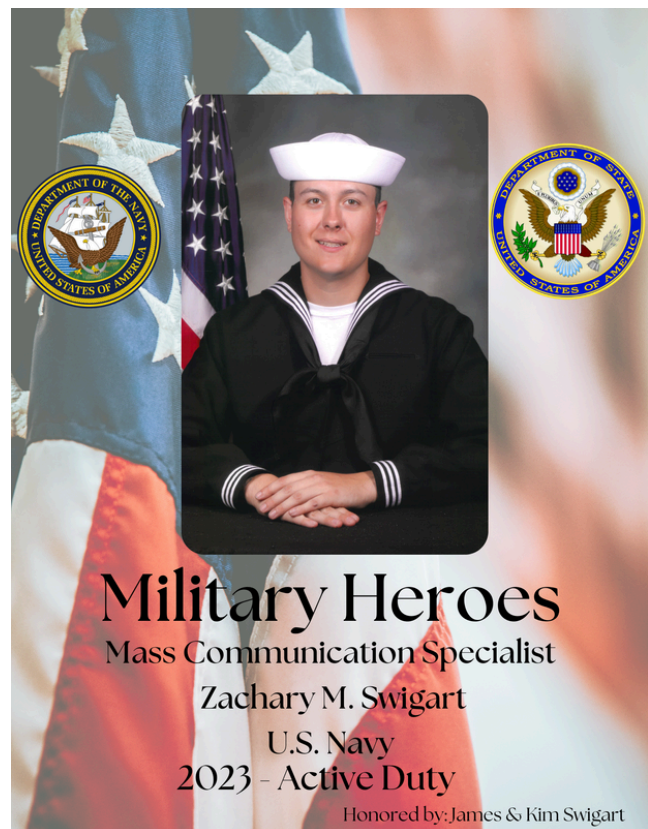

The Town of Round Mountain would like to honor our veterans, past and present. A project is underway to gather information, design and display our veterans. All at no cost for you! These displays will have a special design for each branch: Air Force, Army, Marines, National Guard and Navy. With a picture in the center of the display it will include the veterans' rank, any operations served, and any/all metals acquired.

The Town would like to reach out to everyone and encourage you to submit your veteran(s). This is not limited to veterans; we are also displaying those actively serving. Forms can be picked up at the Town of Round Mountain office or the Smoky Valley Library. Again, this is free for you!
