

Preparing for Dragons' Baseball Season

This past Sunday, March 1, 2025, the Town of Round Mountain and our amazing community came together to get our fields ready for the upcoming Dragons baseball, softball, and t-ball season!

With trash bags in hand and weed pullers at the ready, our volunteers worked tirelessly to beautify our fields. And the cherry on top? Our brand-new t-ball dugouts are now complete!

Stay tuned for game schedules, coming soon! We can't wait to cheer on our Dragons teams this season!

A huge thank you to everyone who lent a hand (or a shovel) to make our fields shine. Let's make this season one to remember!

Blast from the Past:

Nevada History

Thomas "Dry Wash" Wilson circa 1909

In 1907, Thomas "Dry Wash" Wilson struck gold in the mountains, marking the beginning of a legendary era in Round Mountain's history. Wilson's discovery led to the establishment of the Round Mountain Hydraulic Mining Company, which would go on to play a pivotal role in the region's mining industry.

But Wilson's impact didn't stop there. He revolutionized the mining process by inventing and successfully operating dry washing machines at the Round Mountain placers. This innovative technology allowed miners to extract gold from the dry soil, transforming the mining landscape forever.

Wilson's ingenuity and perseverance earned him fame and recognition, cementing his place in Round Mountain's rich history.

Middle School Cheerleading Cheer Camp Fundraiser

Our Middle School Cheerleading squad recently hosted an action-packed cheer camp fundraiser on February 18-20, 2025, and it was a huge hit! Eight of our dedicated middle school cheerleaders volunteered their time to teach and mentor the next generation of cheerleaders.

The three day camp introduced young girls to the exciting world of tumbling and cheerleading. Participants rotated through various tumbling stations, learning fundamental skills and building confidence. They also mastered a special dance routine, which they proudly performed for their families on the final day.

We're incredibly proud of our Middle school cheerleaders for sharing their passion and expertise with the younger girls. This event not only raised funds for our squad but also helped inspire and empower the next generation of cheerleaders.

Great job, Team!
