

Support Our Furry Friends: Adopt & Donate Locally

Our local shelter, the Tonopah Animal Shelter, works tirelessly to care for animals in need right here in our community. Every dog and cat at the shelter is looking for more than just a home – they’re looking for love, safety, and a second chance.

Choosing to adopt from the Tonopah shelter not only saves a life, but it also helps reduce overcrowding and gives these animals the opportunity to become cherished members of a family. Shelter pets come with unique personalities, loyal hearts, and endless gratitude for the care they receive.

Donations are just as important. Contributions of pet food, blankets, cleaning supplies, and monetary gifts help provide medical care, vaccinations, and daily necessities. Even small donations make a big difference in ensuring the animals are healthy and comfortable while they wait for their forever homes.

If you’ve been considering adding a furry friend to your family, please think local first. And if adoption isn’t possible right now, consider donating to help support the incredible work being done at the Tonopah Animal Shelter. Together, we can make a lasting impact for the animals who depend on us.

Blast from the Past: Ophir Mill

Situated in the heart of the Big Smoky Valley, extreme isolation was part of the deal with Ophir Mill first boomed in the mid 1860s and is still part of Nevada today. Nestled in the Toiyabe range between Austin and Tonopah, an impressive amount of stone foundations can be found in Ophir Canyon, including a once-elaborate (and pricey) 20-stamp mill, all kinds of miner cabins and old stores, and a historic cemetery.

In this Nevada boomtown, they were chasing gold and silver ore, which attracted a population of about 400 people and when all was said and done, a total of two million dollars in profit. The Murphy Mine was Ophir's main producer, which prompted the development of a $200,000 stone-masoned stamp mill, which for the time, was expensive and elaborate.

Today, the mill ruins alone are worth the trek into Ophir, and the old mercantile shops and impressively intact miner cabin ruins make the trip all the more satisfying.

A Friendly Community Reminder As Spring Arrives

With warmer weather settling in and baseball season officially underway, our parks and neighborhoods are once again filled with the sounds of children playing, riding bikes, and heading to and from practices and games. It's a wonderful sign of spring – and a great reminder for all of us to stay alert.

As more kids spend time outdoors, we kindly ask drivers to slow down, watch carefully, and be especially mindful near parks, ball fields, and residential streets. Children can be unpredictable – chasing a ball, crossing the street with friends, or riding scooters and bikes – and may not always look both ways.

Let's work together as a community to keep our kids safe while they enjoy the sunshine and baseball season. A little extra caution can make a big difference.

Thank you for doing your part to help make this a safe and happy spring for everyone!
